ALAC Statement on Reconsideration Request 10-1 Recommendation

The At-Large Advisory Committee (ALAC) supports the proposed bylaw changes to shorten the time between the end of the Board meetings and the publication of the resolutions passed and of the preliminary report.

Unfortunately, the proposed bylaw changes did not take into account the following suggestion:

- In addition, it is specifically requested that the staff briefing papers that are provided to the ICANN Board in advance of their Board meeting be publicly posted on the ICANN website in connection with the proposed Agenda seven (7) days before a meeting of the Board.

The At-Large Advisory Committee (ALAC) strongly supports this proposition as it was stated in the Joint ALAC-NCUC Statement on Transparency of Staff Documents

Furthermore The At-Large Advisory Committee (ALAC) wants to emphasize:

- While ICANN deserves credit for creating public forums to receive public comment, ICANN has fallen woefully short of timely processing these comments;
- the need to have not only a Summary/Analysis of the comments of the public forum comments but also how and why a comment was taken into account by staff to amend the initial document.
