

MAPPING INTERNET USERS

Who are internet users ?

Who are the Net Users Repped by At-Large?

At-Large	What are the Most Important Ways to Distinguish Among Internet Users for Good Internet Governance?
Who/What does ICANN consider an internet user? What kind of user is your ALS most representative of? What kind of users are currently well represented in each RALO? Are there important groups of users that are not represented in a RALO now? Is it appropriate or necessary to recruit groups which are not well represented at present?	by Region? within a Region? ?	by services & applications used? by traditional demographic measures?: ethnicity, economic cleas, age, education level ?	by degree of net access? by means of connecting to the net?: cellular? mobile? dial-up? fiber? ? Are people with no net access important to consider? What about users of “netlike” services which are not THE internet?